

CONTENTS

Chapter 1: The Rebirth of Individual Freedom

The Power of One: Re-Asserting the Human

The Power of Global Civil Society: Redefining the Social Experience

Chapter 2: The Evolving Horizon of Equality

Processes of Social Transformation: Past and Present

The Power of Two: Integration of Polarities

The New American Experiential Spirituality: The Birth of Alcoholics Anonymous

The Birth of Social Technology: The Institute of Cultural Affairs

Bridges over the Divides: Nonviolent Communication

Networks and Innovations: Newest Development in Social Technology

New Democracy: Reclaiming “We The People”

American Transformational Techniques: Forms and Essence

From Democratic to Participatory: True Equality beyond the Party System

Chapter 3: The Awakening to Economic Justice

The Global Economic Horizon: United for Better or for Worse
Systems Thinking: Moving into the New Paradigm

The Power of Networks: Collaborating Across Boundaries

Vision: Committing to Truly Desirable Futures

Promoting Change in the Economic Sector

Collaborating Between Private and Non-Profit Sectors

Engaging the Private, Public and Non Profit Sectors

Conclusion: A Vision for the Larger Dimension of Social Change